We just ask that if more than 2 from your company plan to attend in any given month, you let us know so we can plan extra handouts, food, etc.

Join us as Jared Cass, Director of Occupational Medicine and Employee Health for Avita Health Systems and Ryan Bloomfield, EH&S Coordinator for IB Tech discuss the benefits using a local, experienced Occupational Medicine Service Line for OCC services, including on-site and how it can help the employer working as a team with an OCC Health provider.
